References contained herein to the housing programs of the Rural Housing Service (RHS), or its successor agency, are no longer applicable.

(c) FmHA forms are available in any Rural Development (RD) or FSA office.

§ 1910.2 Equal Credit Opportunity Act (ECOA) and Regulation B.

ECOA as amended, prohibits discrimination in credit based on sex, marital status, race, color, religion, natural origin, age (provided the applicant has the capacity to contract), because all or part of the applicant’s income is derived from public assistance of any kind, or because the applicant has, in good faith, exercised any right under the Consumer Credit Protection Act. These shall hereafter be referred to in this subpart as “ECOA prohibited bases.” It is the policy of the Farmers Home Administration or its successor agency under Public Law 103–354 that assistance and services shall not be denied to any person or applicant as a result of race, sex, national origin, color, religion, marital status, age, receipt of income from public assistance, or because the applicant has, in good faith, exercised any right under the Consumer Credit Protection Act.

(a) All persons applying for FSA or RHS assistance who are not indebted to FSA or RHS must file a written application. All persons wishing to submit an application will be encouraged to do so. No oral or written statement will be made to applicants or prospective applicants that would discourage them from applying for assistance, based on any ECOA “prohibited bases.” The filing of written applications will be encouraged even though funds may not be currently available, since complete applications must be considered in the date order received, except when program regulations or Veteran status
